

Office of the Secretary of Defense

§ 398.3

Instructions, the Director, DLSA, or, in the absence of the Director, the person acting for the Director is hereby delegated authority, as required in the administration and operation of DLSA, to:

1. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 7532, Executive Order 10450, as amended, and DoD Directive 5200.2:²

a. Designate positions as "sensitive";

b. Authorize, in case of an emergency, the appointment to a sensitive position, for a limited period of time, of a person for whom a full field investigation or other appropriate investigation, including the National Agency Check, has not been completed; and

c. Authorize the suspension, but not terminate the service, of an employee in the interest of national security.

2. Authorize and approve overtime work for civilian officers and employees in accordance with subchapter V, chapter 55, title 5, U.S.C., and applicable Civil Service Regulations.

3. Develop, establish, and maintain an active and continuing Records Management Program, pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 3102.

4. Authorize the publication of advertisements, notices, or proposals in newspapers, magazines, or other public periodicals, consistent with 44 U.S.C. 3702.

5. Comply with the policies and procedures prescribed in DoD 5025.1-M.³

APPENDIX B TO PART 398—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

AUTHORITY: 10 U.S.C. 191-193.

SOURCE: 54 FR 2101, Jan. 19, 1989, unless otherwise noted. Redesignated at 58 FR 39360, July 22, 1993.

§ 398.1 Purpose.

Pursuant to authority vested in the Secretary of Defense under title 10, this part revises 32 CFR part 398 to update the responsibilities, functions, relationships, and authorities of the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA).

[54 FR 2101, Jan. 19, 1989. Redesignated and amended at 58 FR 39360, July 22, 1993]

§ 398.2 Mission.

The DLA shall function as an integral element of the military logistics system of the Department of Defense to provide effective and efficient worldwide logistics support to the Military Departments and the Unified and Specified Commands under conditions of peace and war, as well as to other DoD Components, Federal Agencies, foreign governments, or international organizations, as assigned. This support shall include:

(a) The provision of material commodities and items of supply that have been determined, through the application of approved criteria, to be appropriate for integrated management by a single agency on behalf of all DoD Components, of that has been otherwise specifically assigned by appropriate authority.

(b) The performance of logistics services directly associated with furnishing material commodities and items of supply (hereafter referred to as "Items").

(c) The administration of Department-wide supply and logistics management systems, programs, and activities, as assigned, including the provision of technical assistance, support services, and information.

§ 398.3 Organization and management.

DLA is established as a Combat Support Agency of the Department of Defense under the overall supervision of the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition (USD(A)) and, with the exception of those responsibilities, functions and relationships assigned to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS), by this part, is under the direction, authority, and control of the USD(A) pursuant to 32 CFR part 382. It shall consist of a Director and such subordinate organizational elements as are established by the Director or specifically assigned to the Agency by the Secretary of Defense.
